Ukraine’s President Volodymyr Zelenskyy

Meets Canadian PM Mark Carney in N.S.

Halifax, Nova Scotia, 28.12.2025, 00:18 Time

USPA NEWS - Ukraine's President Volodymyr Zelenskyy arrived in Halifax, Nova Scotia, today for a meeting with Canadian Prime Minister Mark Carney, scheduled to take place at 1 PM. Zelenskyy's subsequent destination is Palm Beach, Florida, where he will engage in discussions with President Trump at Mar-a-Lago, focusing on a 20-point plan for peace.

A spokesperson for the Canadian Prime Minister's Office released the following statement; "Canada remains steadfast in its support for Ukraine.
Today, Prime Minister Carney welcomed President Zelenskyy to Halifax, where new measures were announced to support a just and lasting peace, and also participated in a call with President Zelenskyy and European leaders to discuss joint efforts for Ukraine's security and recovery."

The leaders discussed military assistance, economic support, peace efforts, and Ukraine’s reconstruction as Russia continues its attacks. Canada pledged $2.5 billion to help rebuild Ukraine, sending a powerful signal of long-term commitment.

Zelenskiy stressed that strong international pressure on Russia remains essential to end the war and secure a lasting peace. Carney reaffirmed Canada’s role as a steadfast ally, backing Ukraine’s sovereignty and future.

As the Ukrainian people endure another winter of Russian aggression, Canada remains steadfast in its support for Ukraine.
The message is clear: Ukraine is not alone, and global unity matters.
